

I rely on the instant traffic and weather as a long haul driver. I can not take my eyes off the road to constantly try and tune in to local stations. It is dangerous! The satellite radio allows me to get the news, weather and traffic when I need it for where I am at. Not to mention local radio does not stay tuned in for very long as I travel.